There was one loose cow report and 9 motor vehicle stops.

Saturday, Jan. 28, 2017

2056 A Glasgow female advised they have a couple in there from Wolf Point who are intoxicated. Another customer came and told her the male subject slapped the female subject by the back door. She didn't see any weapons on the subjects.

2114 A Glasgow caller advised a semi that was all over the road, crossing the lines and hitting his brakes. He said it says light speed on the vehicle and that it is either silver or white in color. A deputy located the semi and has it pulling over. It has an Alberta tag.

Sunday, Jan. 29, 2017

0326 A officer advised that a Glasgow person reported their neighbor's music was too loud.

1019 A St. Marie female called to make a report for record that the puppy in a neighboring house had been crying pretty much non stop for 14 hours. She said she didn't think anyone had been home since the puppy started crying.

1042 A Glasgow female reported her child was locked in the car in the yard. Dispatch suggested to call a locksmith and she said she would call a man. Dispatch notified a deputy, who said that was good. Dispatch will call her back to see that everything was okay. The caller called back to say that someone from Newton Motors was coming out to open the car.

1539 A Glasgow male called to report his dog had gotten out. The dog was a lab/Akita mix, brindle colored, and goes by the name "Guy." The dog was registered to his sister. It went missing around 1300-1330 today. At 1540, the male called back to say their dog had returned home.

1751 A St. Marie woman called to report there was someone who lived with her that was being disorderly and she requested an officer. Two officers were in the St. Marie area, and they reported the disorderly suspect was wearing jeans and a grey
