For the week of Sept. 16 through 22, there were five motor vehicle stops, two reports of loose livestock, two reports of loose horses, one report of a missing dog, two reports of a deer being hit by a vehicle, one report of a lost dog, and one report of a barking dog.

For the week of Sept. 23 through 29, there were six motor vehicle stops, three reports of loose dogs, two reports of loose livestock, one report of a loose horse, one report of a barking dog, three reports for public assist, and three reports of a deer being hit by a vehicle.

Monday, Sept. 16
1549 – Caller reported that around 1445 hours, she left her wallet in a shopping cart. The contents of the wallet was provided to dispatch. She already contacted the store and nothing was turned into them. At 1615, reporting party advised the store found her wallet. Everything was still inside.

1958 – Caller reported she was terminated and the company still has some of her personal property. She is having trouble retrieving it. A deputy advised he will call her back.

2025 – Caller reported she's behind a vehicle that's all over the road. A description of the vehicle was provided as well as direction of travel. She did indicate there's a deputy in front of the vehicle.

Tuesday, Sept. 17
0802 – Reporting party called stating he got a notification on his phone that there was someone at a residence he owns. The first time the person shows up on the video is at 0058 hours. The camera also shows the neighbor came out asking what he was doing there and the guy said he was looking for someone. The guy was advised no one was living there by that name, which at that point the male got in his truck and left. Dispatch informed the reporting party as soon as an officer comes on shift, they will be notified of the call.

0940 - A female came in looking to see if dispatch had any keys turned in. She stated she lost them in August, possibly at the fairground, but was not sure.

1048 - A male called in stating they had done some work on a combine, the owner came and picked it up. The combine then lost the hydraulic fluid on the highway. They have put floor dry on the fluid but there is blockage on the highway and they will be towing the combine back to the shop. He would like an officer to come out and check the situation to make sure everything is okay or provide traffic control. Officer arrived and confirmed the combine is blocking the right lane, however believes the blockage is obvious to other drivers.

1158 - Reporting party came into dispatch lobby to report vandalism to the Rock Creek Dam in Hinsdale. He stated they just paid $130,000 just three weeks ago to fix the dam, poured new concrete and now someone is out there, having a bonfire on the dam. There were shot gun shells, and there's damage to the concrete. It was confirmed that the bonfire and things were on top of the newly poured concrete on the dam.

1532 - Reporting party was at the Glasgow Police Department reporting someone stole her bike. A description of the bike was provided. The bike had been missing for three days.

1839 - Caller reported his wife hit a pole. She wasn't injured. The pole is not sparking but he's concerned it may need to be looked at. A deputy advised there's minimal damage to the pole, however the pole does have a minor gash in the bottom of it. Pole identification numbers were provided to Northwestern Energy.

1841 - Reporting party wanted to report suspicious activity in McCone County. He stated a person took the back plate off the vehicle. Dispatch advised he reached Valley County.

2301 - Manager provided a courtesy call stating a street would be closed due to a water leak. VCSO, Fire and EMS was notified.

Wednesday, Sept. 18

0255 - Reporting party called and she was having trouble sleeping even though she took her medication. She provided her blood pressure and glucose, and then asked if she needed to go to the ER. Dispatch advised they are not a doctor but could direct her to speak with a nurse and gave her the number. A few minutes later dispatch called the hospital and the reporting party was talking to the nurse now.

0329 - A male observed two 18 to 20 year old males carrying hunting rifles walking eastbound. He said by the time he got turned around and headed back, they were entering a residence. The caller knows its hunting season but wanted dispatch to be aware. Deputy was advised of the call who stated there was no crime to respond to.

First the caller stated the woman got out of the vehicle, ran across the road and then got back into the car. Then the caller said the woman was wondering around in the middle of the road. The caller stopped behind the vehicle when the woman stopped the car. The caller then tried to talk to the woman but she got back in her car and remained in her spot on the highway.

Tuesday, Sept. 24

0800 - Reporting party called stating she had already called in this vehicle, but it is still parked in front of their shop and they need it gone. An officer later advised he tagged the vehicle yesterday and it will get a notice for the vehicle to be towed today. Officer got in touch with the registered owner and she will get it moved.

1617 - Caller said his boat quit on him on the lake. A description of where he was at was provided. The Fort Peck Marina was called and they didn't have anyone available to tow him in so provided another number.

2251 - Caller asked if someone reported a vehicle backward in the ditch. The reporting party stated it looked like the vehicle is sitting crooked with both the front and rear end in the ditch. At 2315, deputy advised he spoke with the registered owner. It was determined his daughter was driving and a tire blew out, which caused her to go into the ditch. When the car went into the ditch, the second tire blew out.

Wednesday, Sept. 25

1157 - Caller reported she has a possible rattle snake in her yard. She wanted to know what to do about it. It was determined it was a bull snake and a deputy moved it to a place away from the residences.

1309 - A vehicle is in the ditch. Dispatch ran the plate and called the registered owner. It was determined the vehicle had been sold a second time and the name of the possible owner was provided.

1344 - Caller reported that last week he took a shower at a friend's house. He forgot his clothes there. He went to get them back and she will not give him his clothes back. At 1534, it was reported an officer advised he called the female. She told him he had left some clothes there. When he called her, she told him she was busy right then and could not bring them to him. He got mad at her and started yelling so she didn't talk to him anymore. She told the officer she would take him his clothes.

1423 - RC called stating earlier today they got a call from a female who told them there was a grader that was being driven recklessly. It was advised the reporting party didn't seem to want anything done so they didn't get any further information. However, the reporting party then called back and stated she was in Wolf Point and wanted to meet with an officer about the incident. It was determined to be a Roosevelt County grader and the driving occurred in Roosevelt County.

1835 - Reporting party stated he was leaving the parking lot when the vehicle quit on him. The vehicle is not completely off the road, but he wasn't able to push it. At 1835, officer advised the reporting party is back to the scene and will try to get it pushed out of the roadway.
